

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 9, 2005

CONTACT: KIM Newman, Public Relations

Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts
556 Parkway, Gatlinburg, TN 377338
(865) 436-5860

ENROLL NOW FOR ARROWMONT'S COMMUNITY CLASSES

GATLINBURG, Tenn. – Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts is currently registering students for both its Adult Community Classes that begin Nov. 1 and for its Children & Young Adult Classes that begin Jan. 7

Adult classes for those 16 years and older begin November 1 and meet every Tuesday and Thursday evening from 6:30-9:00 p.m. through December 7.

Adult classes include: Watercolor in a Series with Heather Pace; Drawing with Confidence with Greta Songe; Black and White Photography Techniques with Jill Greene; Kasuri Basics: Warp Ikat and Indigo with Rolland and Chinami Ricketts; Basic Wheel Throwing with Amy Evans; Forging Ornamental Objects and Functional Utensils with David Kissel; Beginning to Advanced Hand Building with Clay with Amy Santoferraro; Introduction to Woodworking and Furniture Design with Laura Yeats; and Exploration of Woodturning: Spindles to Bowls with Dave Hankey and Randy Ogle.

Registration has also started for Children and Young Adult Classes for youth in kindergarten through 12th grade. Classes meet Saturday morning from 9:00-noon Jan. 7-Feb. 4.

Youth classes with openings include: Art Explorers (K-3) with Donna Moore; Splash, Splish, Squeegee ((1-5) with Karen Byars; Clay Story (1-5) with Amy Santoferraro; By the Book (1-5) with Heather Pace; Express Yourself: Drawing, Painting & Printmaking (4-7) with Greta Songe; Exploring the World of Acrylics and Oils (5-12) with Ed Lockett; Photography Basics (6-12) with Jill Greene; and Fun & Funky Jewelry (7-12) with Kim Newman.

Call Arrowmont at (865) 436-5860 to register, for more information and class availability.

Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts, located at 556 Parkway in Gatlinburg, is an nationally recognized visual art center and cultural center to the region, committed to its mission of “enriching lives through art.”

###