GATLINBURG, TN—This June 15 through July 13, 2007, the Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts and the University of Texas at Austin Performing Arts Center will present INSPIRED BY APPALACHIA, 2007 Arrowmont Summer Concert Series.

INSPIRED BY APPALACHIA will feature the finest national and regional performers that are and have been “inspired” by the Appalachian culture and traditions. This summer’s concert series will feature Susan Cowsill, Grammy Award Winner, Tim O’Brien, Robinella, and The Everybodyfields with special guest, R.B. Morris. For more information about the performers visit www.arrowmont.org/concertseries.html

INSPIRED BY APPALACHIA is the result of a unique partnership between these two educational institutions as part of a new Performing Arts Management Fellowship Program at the UT Austin Performing Arts Center. The series is generously underwritten by The Haslam Family Foundation and co-sponsored by East Tennessee’s own WDVX 89.9 FM, The Park Grill, The Peddler Restaurant and Ole Smoky Candy Kitchen.

INSPIRED BY APPALACHIA, 2007 Summer Concert Series, June 15 & 22 and July 6 & 13 at 7PM at the Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts Auditorium, 556 Parkway, Gatlinburg. Tickets are available at the door and by phone at 865-436-5860. $15 General Admission. $50 Series Package.
