WOVEN FOR YOUR WALL - GRACIE HERBERT - POTTERY STUDIO

Learn how to use a frame loom to add decoration to your home. Students will learn tabby, twill, and rya knots to create a finished piece to take home. Instruction will include how to warp a frame loom and finishing techniques. Materials included.

Gracie Herbert is the sole artist behind Gracie Love Ceramics. She graduated in 2013 with a BFA in Studio Arts with a concentration in ceramics from Miami University in Ohio. After graduating Gracie moved to St. Petersburg, Florida, where she completed a residency at The Craftsman House and became a member at Parker. As a member she worked on experimenting through styles until finding her voice in clay. Gracie served as a studio technician at Parker Pottery from 2015-2016 where she became familiar with the daily operations of operating a pottery studio. Gracie is currently the Supply Store Manager at Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts.

CERAMIC DECAL COLLAGE - LUKE HULING - HANDBUILDING STUDIO

Use special ceramic decal paper to create a multi colored 2D tile! We will explore layering, color theory and different finishing techniques. Students will each be given a 5x5 tile and instructions to complete the process in one night. Fired pieces will be available for pick up a week after the workshop. Materials included.

Luke Huling is a figurative sculptor from Harrisburg Pennsylvania. He received his BFA from Edinboro University in ceramics and metalsmithing in 2014. In 2019 Luke received his MFA in ceramics from Indiana University and taught as an Associate instructor in art foundations and ceramics. He was a long-term Artist-In-Resident at the LUX Center for the Arts. Luke is a current Artist-in-Residence at Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts.

RINGS FOR ALL OCCASIONS - JOLYNN SANTIAGO - WOOD AUDITORIUM

Learn the basics of ring forming and leave with that special ring for any occasion. Through piercing, roller printing, and forging, you will size and solder a personalized ring band for you or a sweetie. Materials included.

Jolynn Santiago is an artist from Ohio. Her work is the result of tedious rituals, daily observations, and material investigations. Her practice involves observing her routine and taking note of the seemingly invisible marks that illustrate time. She translates these marks—creating jewelry that illuminates moments in history. Jolynn received a BFA in Jewelry | Metal | Enameling from Kent State University and graduated with her MFA in Metal from the State University of New York at New Paltz (SUNY New Paltz). Jolynn is a current Artist-in-Residence at Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts.

SCULPTURAL PAINTING • JON HENDRICKS • HANDBUILDING STUDIO

Learn how you can build layers and play with translucency and opacity while enjoying a glass of wine. This class will explore textural play with mixed media painting through the use of everyday home materials, using wet and dry mediums. Materials included.

Jon Hendricks lives in Blount County with his wife Amanda and their kitties. He has been teaching children’s art classes for 20 years. He is currently enrolled at the University of Tennessee, majoring in Studio art with a focus in Art Therapy. Jon’s classes specialize in Therapeutic art using different mediums, depending on the class and age group. It’s through this exploration and the “aha” moment for adolescents, teens & yes, even adults, that interests him most. The “craft” of the projects are refined through the process of exploration of the subject matter and medium being used.

PRINT, WINE, REPEAT • KELLY SULLIVAN • PAINTING STUDIO

Cut, Glue, Assemble, Print! In this one night workshop learn the fun and fast way to make and print collagraphs. From found objects to carefully cut shapes you will be excited by the results you find after you run the plate through the press! Materials included.

Kelly Sullivan graduated from Florida Atlantic University with a BFA in Studio Art, concentration in Printmaking but considers herself to be a Mixed Media artist. She has lived in South Florida, Atlanta, Syracuse, New York and currently resides in Knoxville, Tennessee. Kelly moved to East Tennessee to follow a dream and work at Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts, where she was formerly the Supply Store Manager. Kelly is currently Director of Knoxville Arts & Fine Crafts Center where she enjoys creating programming for the community she lives and teaches in.
